

Employment Agreement

Employee agrees that during employment and for twelve (12) months after termination, Employee will not engage in any business that competes with Employer within the territories in which Employer operates. Employee shall not solicit any customer or employee for twelve (12) months.